Testosterone injections may be considered medically necessary for transgender individuals who meet ALL the following:

- Individual is 16 years of age or older; and
- Individual has a diagnosis of gender dysphoria or gender identity disorder; and
- The goal of treatment is female-to-male gender reassignment.