This CLE program will include a presentation from Charlie Arrowood, Esq. on handling name changes for Trans individuals in a “how to” format for the purpose of teaching practitioners how to handle the matters and to demonstrate in what ways such a matter may present differently than other name change proceedings. Discussions include recent changes in labor and employment law and the Federal Courts’ Circuit split on Title VII and its applicability to discrimination against LGBTQ workers, which will be done by Saul D. Zabell, one of the lawyers in the Zarda v. Altitude Express case. This Second Circuit case held that LGBTQ people are protected under Title VII. In addition, Christopher J. Chimeri and Lew Silverman will discuss the continued evolution of Family Court standing and the definition of parentage in the wake of the 2016 NYS Court of Appeals decision In the Matter of Brooke S.B.
