Transcend Legal – Legal Internship Positions

Transcend Legal welcomes law students to apply for legal internships. Interns will assist with legal research and writing, client intake, direct representation, and public policy advocacy.

Commitments can be full- or part-time. Three 10-week, full-time positions are available during the summer.

Transcend Legal is based in New York City, but remote work is possible.

About Transcend Legal

Transcend Legal is a national organization cultivating equitable social, medical and legal recognition of transgender people by offering culturally competent, transgender-led legal representation, public policy advocacy, community education & organizing, and public education.

Our current areas of priority are ensuring that (1) all transgender people in the U.S. can access the health care that they need; and (2) all transgender people in New York can have their name & gender legally recognized.

Responsibilities

Legal interns will work directly with the Executive Director and Director of Name & Gender Recognition. Interns will gain experience by:

- Assisting in drafting of pleadings, briefs, demand letters, and insurance appeals;
- Conducting client intake and meeting with clients;
- Researching legal questions and drafting memoranda for existing and potential cases;
- Researching and drafting policy advocacy documents;
- Researching and drafting materials for public education;
- Compiling legal information and referral resources.

Compensation

This is a nonpaying volunteer position. Interns are encouraged to seek out and apply for grants from their school or other sources, and to request course credit where available.

Desired Experience and Qualifications

The legal internship is open to law students. Desired qualifications include:

- The highest levels of initiative, creativity, and good judgment;
- Excellent research, writing, analytical and communication skills;
- Well-organized, self-directed, and able to complete multiple tasks in a timely and efficient manner;
- A commitment to actively working in alignment with other social, racial, and economic justice movements; and
- Experience with or commitment to serving transgender communities.
- Proficiency in Spanish is a plus.

How to Apply

Applicants should prepare the following:

- Cover letter including:
 - your interest in transgender legal work, including any relevant life or work experience gained before or during law school;
 - where you learned of this internship opportunity; and
 - your availability (time of year, part-time or full-time)
- Resume
